For the first time in Budapest, the EOSC's impact on European research and its implications on European society will be introduced to the wider public.

Different use cases will be showcased on how EOSC can help in tackling the EU's societal challenges such as the climate crisis, food security, health and wellbeing, among others. The conference will also provide answers on how researchers, scientists, scholars, and experts around the world could benefit from the virtual environment.

The venue of the event will be Danubius Hotel Helia, 1133 Budapest, Kárpát utca 62-64., Venus Hall. Prior registration is required before 1 p.m. on November 25, the day of the event. BRENDENBEN

INSTITUTE OF MUSICOLOGY AT THE HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES
BUDAPEST H-1034 TÁNCICS ST. 7.

What possible futures await Europe and the EU? Are we moving towards more just and cohesive societies, or towards further breakdown and fracture? What and where are European values today? What is democracy today? Europe is in flux, as we celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall, and 15 years of EU expansion eastwards. There is a lack of consensus on European values that underpin European institutions, and the question is whether we can reach a consensus today for a new European social contract or a European New Deal. Faultlines in Europe, East and West, North and South, are growing aggravating social upheaval, insecurity and political polarization. Has Europe lost its chance for global leadership in this new age and become increasingly irrelevant on world stage? What are your visions for Europe's future?

The 4th Annual Blue Sky Conference addresses these questions and many more. This event offers participants to exchange views amidst increasing global and local economic, political and social turbulence. In the panel discussions perspectives from Africa, Russia, Turkey and the Balkans will be especially highlighted.

Invited speakers: DANIEL BROOKS [IASK, University of Toronto], JÁNOS BOGÁRDI [IASK, University of Bern], ILAN CHABAY [IASP, Potsdam], SEAN CLEARY [Strategic Concepts], EDWARD KRUMIRA [STIAS, Stellenbosch], ANDREI KORTUNOV [RIAS], ALBRECHT VON MUELLER [Parmenides Foundation Munich], PETRE SCHULZE [Göttingen University] and more...

Topics:

- Resilient societies in and beyond Europe
- New centres, new peripheries
- New scenarios for European integration, the shifting role of Central-Eastern Europe
- New types of cross-cultural networks – formal and informal
- Changing forms and notions of citizenship
- Social trust and shared values in Europe
- The socio-political context of climate change
